Academic Integrity: All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aiding academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. In addition, obtaining material from “pre-written” sources available on the internet is definitely considered an academic offense! All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council and those students who are found to be in violation of the Presentation and Assessment

You will each be in a group of 3 or 4, and will be responsible for a 20 minute presentation of a journal article from the reading list. This presentation will be followed by questions on your article from the class and from Prof. Jobin. You will know the date and article for your presentation by the 29th of January. Prior to your presentation, each group will schedule a brief organizational meeting with Prof. Jobin (this may only take a minute or two before or after class but feel free to come to office hours for more time). Two weeks following the presentation, each group will hand in a four - six page written assessment of the article. This assessment will place the article in context and discuss its strengths and weaknesses. You are expected to provide analysis of the article in this paper, not merely a summary – see assignment instructions on CU Learn.

Examinations

There will be two examinations. Both the midterm and the final will be take-
